

Dear Sir:

I have written to you before about the dangers of Media consolidation, and Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example!

Under your direction, Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. This is nothing but a 1 hour advertisement being broadcast free of charge and under duress!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. You need to stand up and DO YOUR JOB!! Thank you.
